Times have changed. Today, with the advent of the Internet, accessibility to one's finances is more convenient than ever. With online banking there are no long lines or gas-guzzling drives to the bank. Transactions, bill payment and ordering new checks can all be accomplished with the click of a button in the comfort of one's own home. ATMs allow instant access to cash. For some people, there is no brick and mortar bank behind their online accounts - their banking is conducted entirely with an Internet bank. <http://www.becoolbody.com/member.php?u=725>
